I liked the premise of the game. Created a good spooky mood. However, the game is a bit too easy to beat, and the occupant is easy to get away from and avoid, which reduces the scariness level. You spend more time worrying about where the items are than where the occupant is. I think the game is a good start, but can be more successful with some additional wrinkles to increase difficulty. Game was fun, however.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=bo_9_9y-G9g. This game is simply amazing and cheap. It has a little retro game style to it and 500 achievements to collect! Also trading cards! It is simply worth the money and a pretty good game. You should really check it out if you have some cents left in your account that simply won't buy anything.. I was enjoying it until I encountered a problem I was in Career mode and I had done my first lap and then it wouldnt change gear it was in automatic transmission this problem happened to the AI as well and the issue would come and go so as you can imagine its as annoying as hell. I recommend any other off road game than this its the worst I have ever played I dont expect there to be any bug fixes or updates to the game in the future as the game came out in April 2017 so it is almost 2 years old.. Neat. There would be a lot of things to say about the game. It's just huge. The gameplay is brilliant and addictive! The story is decent. as long as we don't mind reading repetitively. The dynamically generated end bonus is what finished conquering me. I'd recommend it without a doubt.. Hard and fun
Its another rage game. Music is good. and gameplay is amazing.

This is a antivirus for the everyday gammer and the best part is that you dont need to renew the license every year!. Been playing it for a while, I would say a couple of levels and so far is a great experience, movement is smooth and terific graphics detail. Love that you can grab almost everything you see and it is a very involving experience. Recommended game. I've been playing it on Samsung Odyssey and while WMR is not in the list of pported devices, haven't run into any issues and the controllers are correctly mapped to match the Vive controller.. The guys at BlueLine games have done an amazing job with my new game Tatsu (I'm the designer of the board game).

The graphics are wonderful, the animated dragon stones look fantastic and the AI is now quite aggressive on the hardest level, it's beaten me 5 times in the last 12 games I played with it. That is really good, considering I beat it 64 times in a row before it was updated. Really looking forward to seeing the community grow with this game, as it has with my other game Hive. The physical board game is going to launch in the USA in about a week, so I'm really pleased to see that BlueLine games have managed to release the Steam version in time for that. A lot of hours, hard work and love has gone into this version, you can really see that when you play the game.

Well done guys.

John Yianni. They "officially" released it over half a year ago, and then abandoned it. The devs told me on their facebook page and on the official forums that they'd add more layers. and improve it even further. But nope. Haven't heard anything since. Get Clip Studio Paint instead if you're seeking for a paid program.

EDIT: Almost 4 months in since last developer "update", and we've not yet received an update to make Black Ink better. The software is still in Early Access.

EDIT 2: Another 4 months have passed. Still nothing new :). No gameplay, but hot anime chicks. Just be sure to go offline so your friends won't find out. About Love, Hate and the other ones is a very fun puzzle game. You switch between 2 little black guys, Love and Hate. There are others that you either call toward you by having Love say love you or scare away by having Hate say hate you. By doing this you move the others around to help Love and Hate escape the level. If you like puzzle games, buy it!. Steam should change the review system to stars instead of tumbs up and down. I was searching for a motocross game and was thinking between mxgp pro, mxvsatv all out and moster energy. After some research i decide to go for mxgp, i own the 1 and 3(didnt like this one). I must say that alot of the reviews and youtube videos out there dont pay the real picture of the game, coming from the mx3 to this was a big and amazing jump, i have been playing the game as much as i can. I do know that apparently the devs promised some new features which they didnt put in the game or it was poorly implemented but still this game doesn't deserve negative reviews no F way!. If you want to play a motocross game go for it you will enjoy it, i will probably buy mxvsatv later on since i have been playing mxvsatv for years but right now i am very happy with mxgp pro. 10/10. Copoka is a short but refreshing game with a simple premise: find trinkets for your nest. Along the way, you'll have the option of listening in on conversations that happen among the city's citizens, and you'll hear a story of political unrest. A controller is recommended, and for good reason, though the game is playable with m+kb. I honestly wish I could find more games of this playstyle, because there's a lot of thrill in climbing to the highest point in the sky, then doing a nosedive to the streets below while the deafening wind rushes past your ears and the rumble feature goes haywire in mock imitation of shaking muscles and rustling feathers.
